We have just returned from a fantastic weeks holiday at La Maison Du Calme, the property is outstanding and far exceeded our expectations. This was our first visit to France and if like us, you are not sure of the area, the owners Jayne and Scott are a wealth of knowledge and will advise you of the best places to visit. The property itself has everything you could ask for even a SALAD SPINNER. What we found exceptional was the welcome hamper which has everything you will need to start you off. The garden is beautiful and very private with sun loungers, seats and a fantastic gazebo for eating out on those lovely evenings watching the sun set. If you have young children there's no need to worry everything is provided for you including toys for the outside. We took along our little dog who was welcomed with fresh water, dog food and treats. Jayne and Scott made Alfie feel very at home. Jayne and Scott have put so much effort into making this property stunning. We have stayed in cottages all over the UK and i can say that we have never stayed in anything as beautiful as this. Nothing was a bother if there was anything we didn't know Jayne or Scott would. This property and the Owners are outstanding and we will certainly be back hopefully next year. Thank you Jayne and Scott for a fabulous holiday.xx

We all had such a fantastic time at La Maison du Calme, it was perfect. Jayne & Scott were the most welcoming and helpful hosts. Provided lots of contact before our arrival to make sure our holiday would be stress free travelling with two 1 year olds, and even saved some of the party who were stranded at the airport in the middle of the night!. They really couldn't do enough for us. We were overwhelmed by the facilities provided in both gites, it really is a home from home. Like the description states - you really do only need to take your clothes! We have been telling everyone about it since being back and we will definitely be booking again. It is by far the best gite/cottage/apartment that we have ever stayed in.

A fantastic fortnight at La Maison du Calme. The gite was both extremely comfortable and well equipped. The welcome pack was more than generous and as someone has previously said you could literally turn up with your clothes and have just about everything you needed. The setting is beautiful, well maintained and tranquil. Scott and Jayne were great hosts, helpful and very informative. Nothing was too much trouble. Hope to return and would highly recommend.
